

$8 or $10, depending on opponent), but if you really want to see the Red Sox whenever or the Tigers on a weekend it's best to come prepared, meaning with tickets already in tow.

GAME DAY

Gates open 2 hours before game time.

Food, drink and bag policy

- Food is allowed in but must be in a clear plastic baggy.
- Plastic bottles of water can be brought inside the stadium.
- Bags up to a maximum size of 16" x 16" x 8" are permitted.
- Items specifically prohibited in the stadium are: cans, coolers and glass bottles.
- Strollers are permitted but discouraged, as you have to fold them up and keep the stroller clear of aisles and walkways, which isn't an easy thing to do.

Getting autographs

The Orioles' clubhouse is behind right field and players will usually sign for fans on their way to it following the game in the same first baseline box sections (101-106) where they sign before games. The visiting team's bus is parked behind the left-center field wall and if you're lucky a couple of players will sign on their way to it following the game, although they are more likely to sign for fans before the game in the sections closest to their dugout and bullpen.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Great grub abounds on the grounds of Ed Smith Stadium. At the sit down Café 54 that's aside the home plate entrance a few sandwiches, wraps and paninis are served. The stand behind the
